Part 1: Correct the underlined verb forms according to the prompts in brackets. The first one has been done for you as an example.

Once upon a time, there e.g. was (past simple) a queen named Alina, who was the fattest woman in the whole kingdom. Due to an unknown disease, Queen Alina's weight rapidly increased, and she (1) become (past simple) very fat.

Despite her best efforts, the queen was (2) be (past simple) unable to cure her disease. The kingdom's people had started making fun of the queen behind her back. People said, "Queen Alina is the fattest queen in the world." Seeing the way his people treated his queen, King John (3) become (past simple) very angry and ordered, "From now on, everyone in the kingdom (4) have (present simple) to eat more and look fat. Then no one (5) make (future simple) fun of Queen Alina." The queen tried to stop the king's order, but he listened to no one.

King John even ordered his guards to kick out anyone who did not follow his commands from the kingdom. As a result of fear, most people, including children, (6) begin (past simple) eating more food. Children (7) eat (past continuous) food even when they (8) have (past continuous) lessons in school.

All the people in the kingdom, including the children, became fat and overweight after a year and a half. It did not take long for Princess Bella to feel odd since everyone she (9) see (past simple) in the kingdom looked fat, including her friends. But she (10) be not (past simple).

"I want to look like everyone else," the princess said to her mother. "All my friends are gaining weight since father put that order in place. Why aren't we doing the same thing?" Her mother explained that it was a punishment given by her father to the people of the kingdom, not for them.
